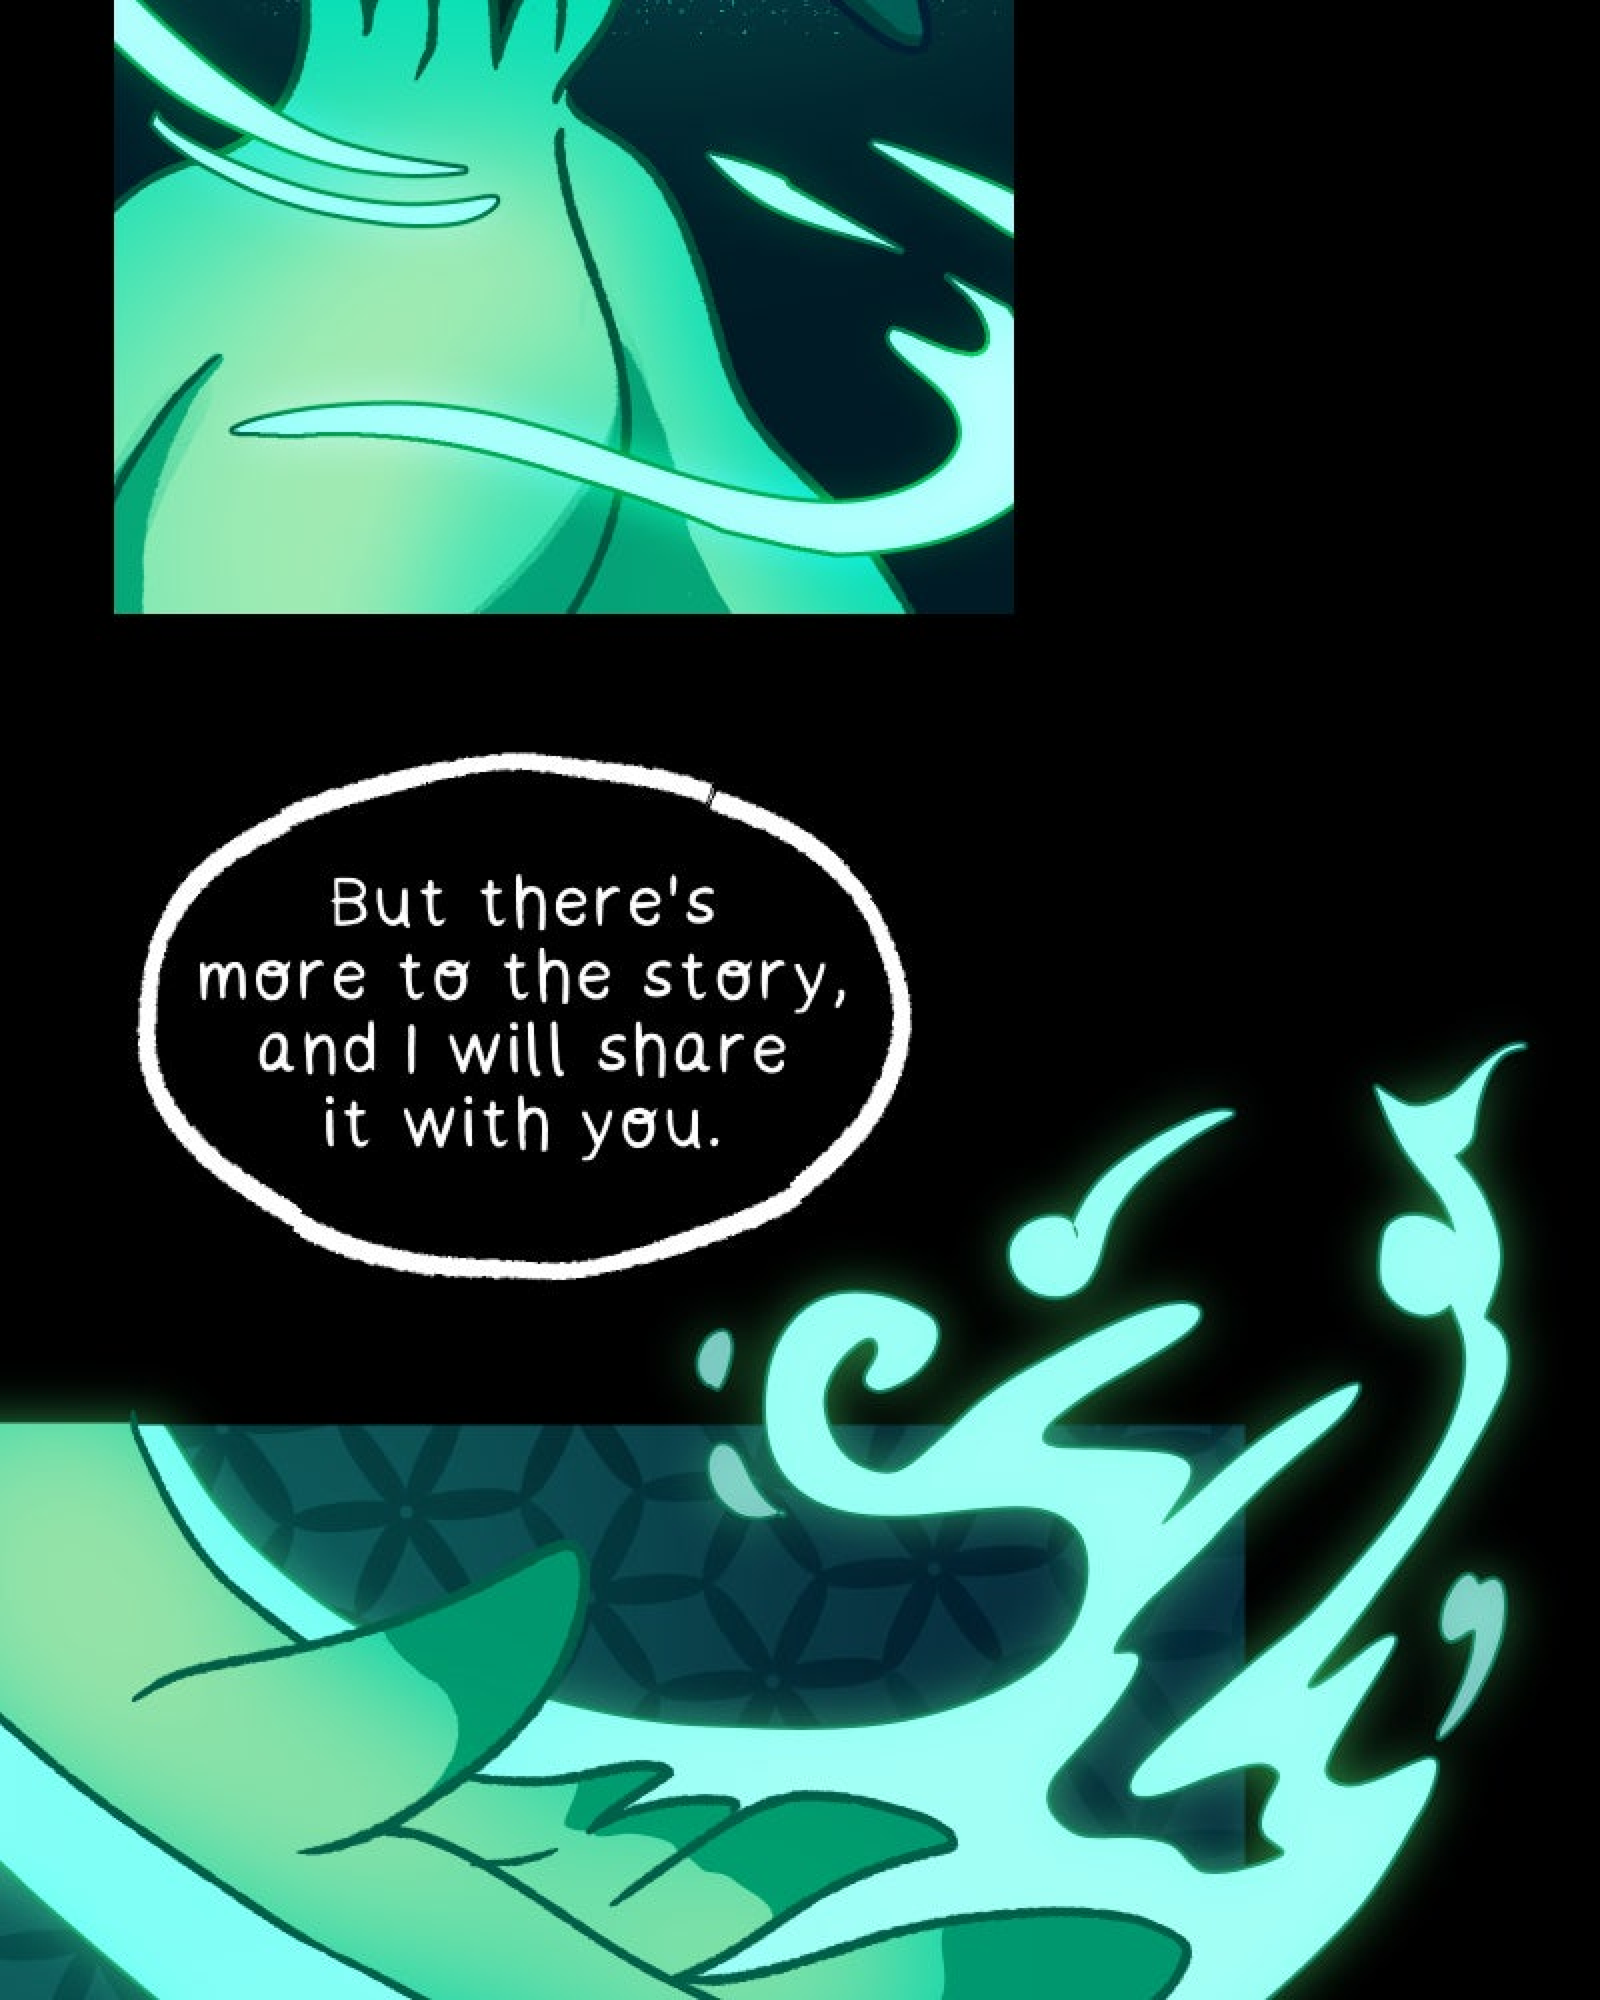
El silbón - TOL Part V

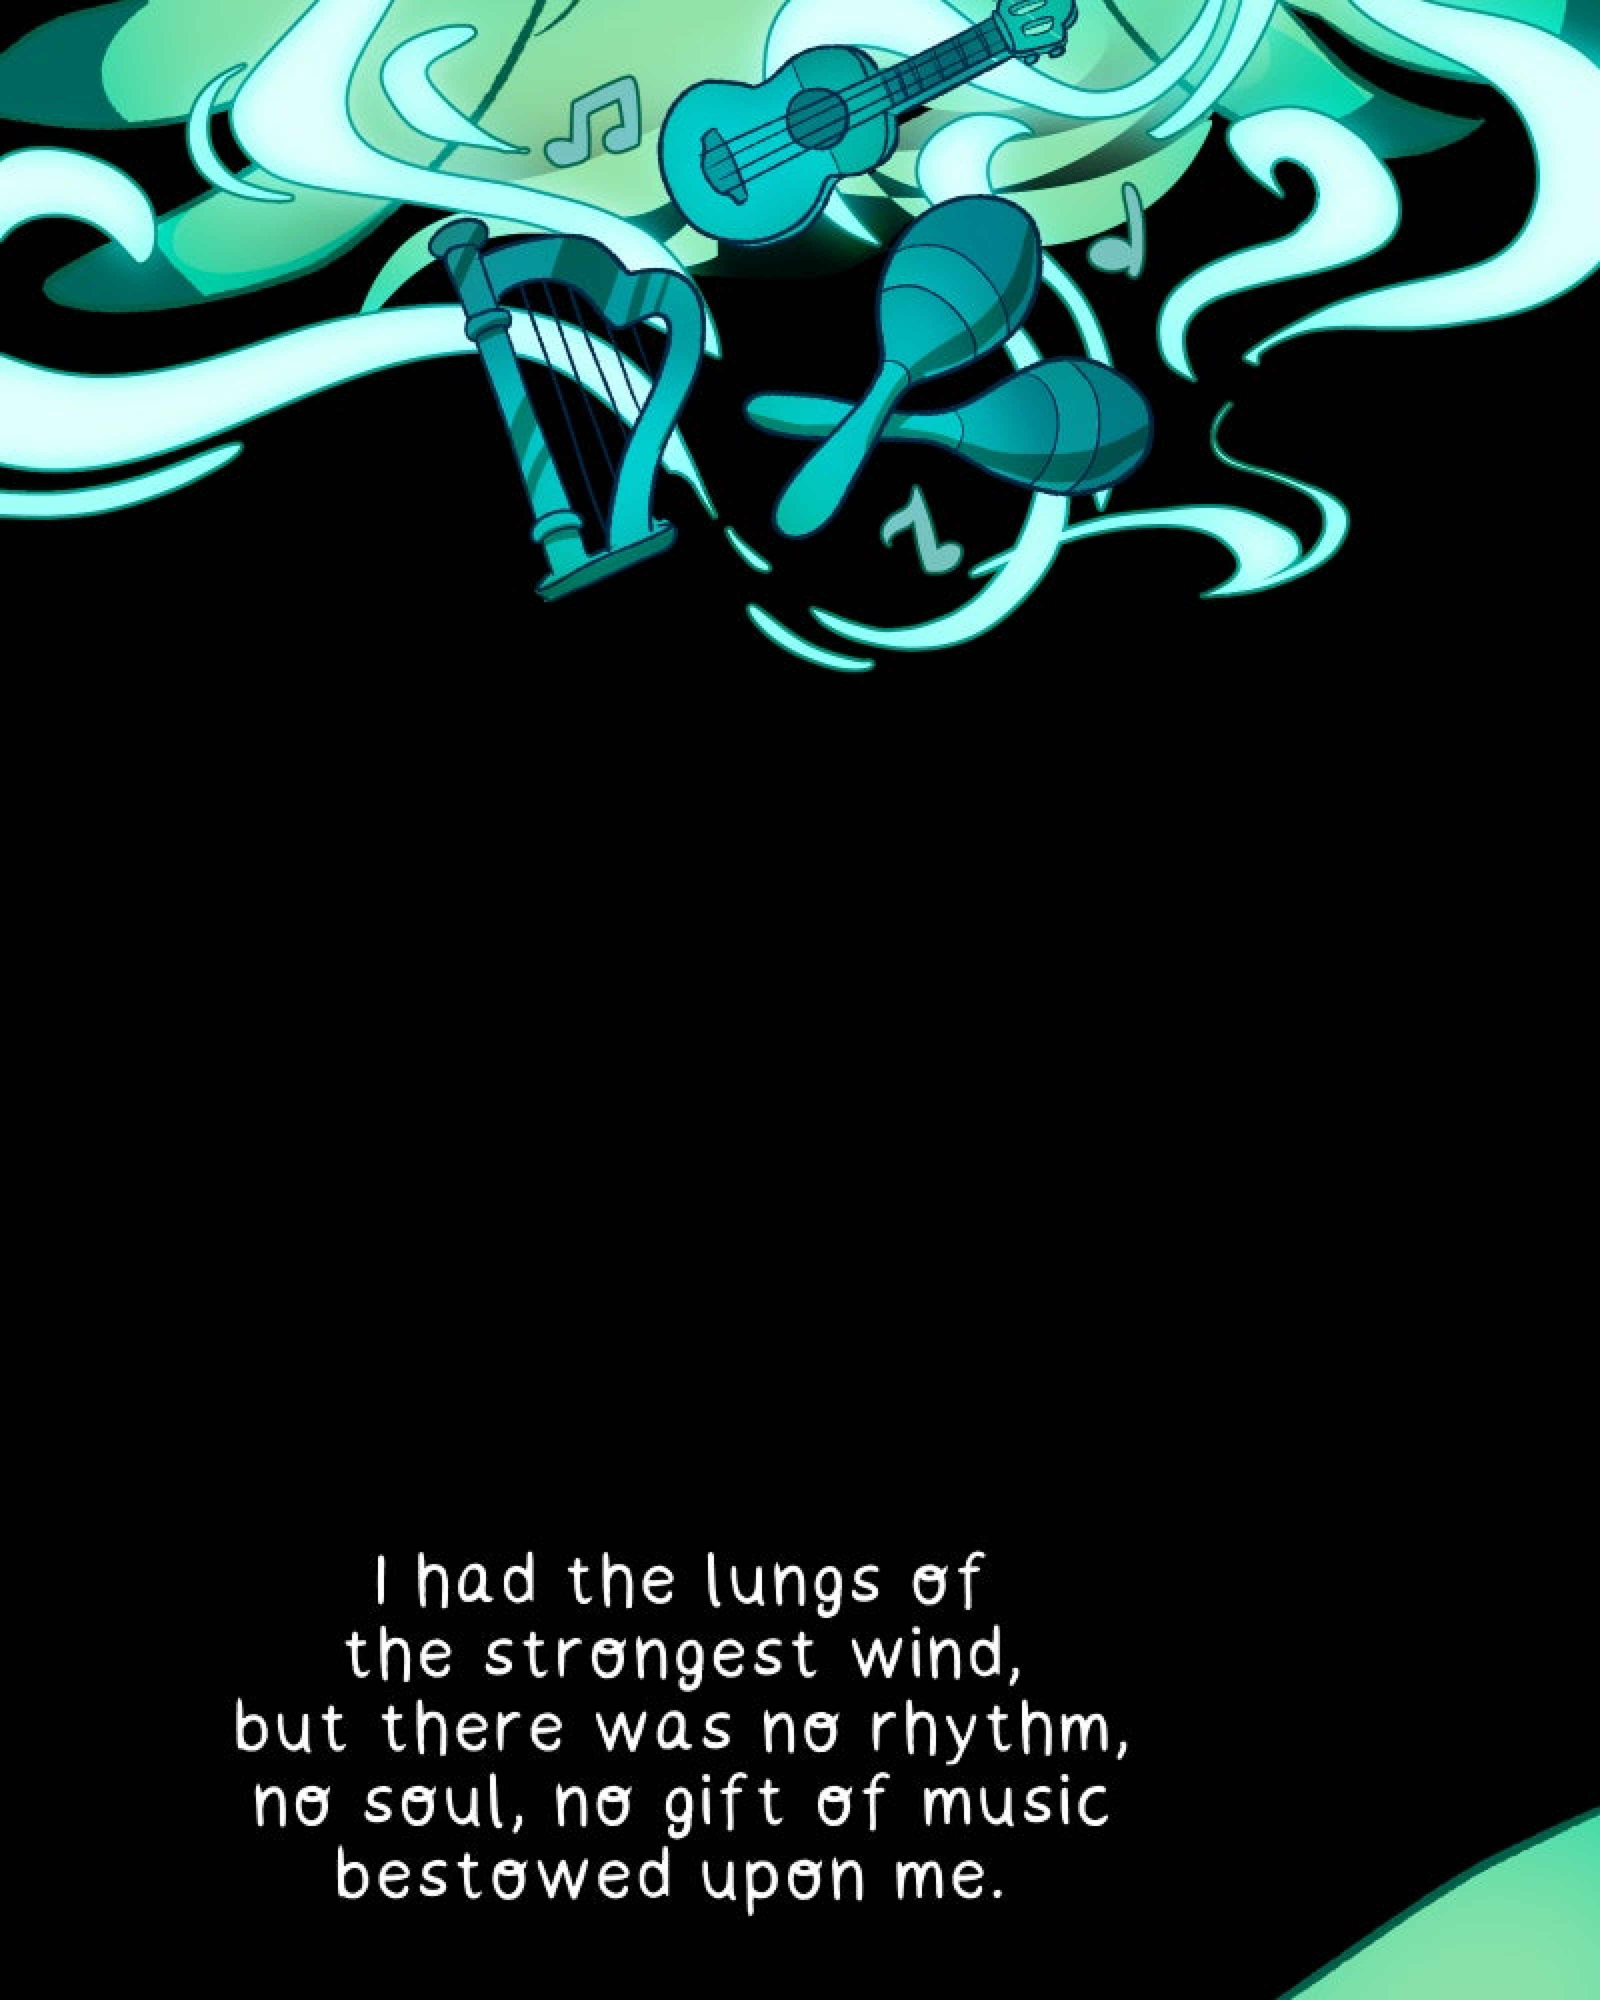
Sep 24, 2023

The books, the songs, they are all true.
I'm not a kind soul.



But there's more to the story, and I will share it with you.

My biggest dream was to become a virtuoso, just like my father.



I had the lungs of
the strongest wind,
but there was no rhythm,
no soul, no gift of music
bestowed upon me.

In the presence of my father,
I felt like an outcast.

And in the absence of talent,
hatred found me.

One day,
he was playing an intricate song.

It was rare,
but he seemed frustrated and incapable.
Almost like me.

And at his lowest, I mocked him, over and over.

The rest of the story is as close as you will find in the tales.

When my grandfather saw me at the plaza, messing with
the broken violin,
he realized my father
had met his fate.

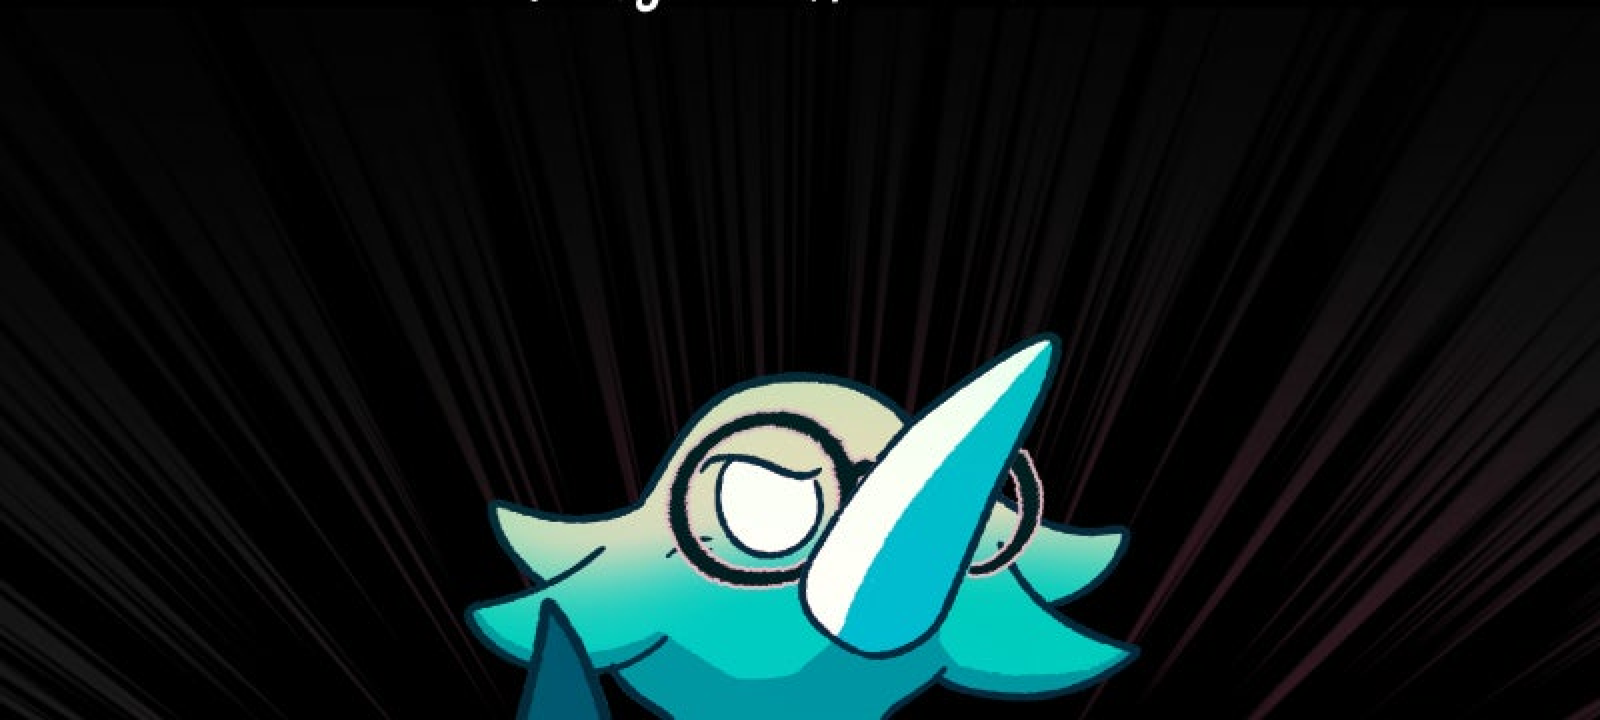
He cast the dogs upon me,
along with a curse:



"You will roam the llano to haunt

the paraulatas will mock you forever,
and you'll never whistle again."
PFFF

Truth is, the whistler is nothing but a bird who's unable to sing.

SHUUK

A cursed bird that pretends it can whistle.

Much like a cat that pretends it can howl.

No

Take the whistle. You need it more than I do.

Im tired of trying to convince others of who I am.

So what are you? a wolf? a cat?

I live in a wolf village, howl at the moon, and belong to a pack.
I can meow, and climb, I can see in the dark. I can bark, play, and whistle like a bird, yet I'm much more than just the sum of my parts.
MEOOOW

Woof! Woof!
Interesting.

YES!
You can be whatever you want to be and we will LOOOVE YOU!

Thank you, friend. I think our job here is done.

It seems I made you emotional, apologies.
This? I'm just crying about the treasure.

Sure.
